

The Down-fall of S—n and W—r;

O R, T H E

Independant Westminster Electors Triumph.

To the Tune of, Come let us prepare, &c.

YE Westminster Boys,
By your Freedom of Choice,
Who have shown to your good Friends of Lon-
Ye dare to be Free, [don;
Reject Pension and Fee,
By throwing out Wager and Sundon:

Come honestly on
Give your Votes as y've done,
When you voted for EDWIN and VERNON;
Like Britons be bold,
Laugh at Power and Gold,
Else Bribery comes, and will spare none.

The Army so grand,
For the Good of the Land,
That is annually chose our Protectors;
A new Trade have got,
And without Scott or Lot;
Are now all become our Electors.

Your High-Constable out,
Select Vestry-men rout;
The Burgess's, Stumps and High-Bailey,
'Tho Robin assist,
We ne're will desist,
No Power nor Pelf shall avail ye.

As Edwin for you,
Did all he could do
As at the last Poll ye remember,
Now all of ye shou'd
To him be as good,
And choose him once more for your Member.

Lord Percival here,
Will shortly declare,
Who fears neither Wager nor Sundon,
But hates all the Tribe
Who take Pension or Bribe
By which we brave Boys are all undone.
VERNONS self will rejoice,
When he hears of our Choice
And is told how we've routed the Old-ones
Then join Hand in Hand,
To each other firm stand,
For Success always follows the Bold-ones
The Parliament soon
Will grant you your Boon,
And give you another Election,
Then your Liberty use,
These honest Men choose
And rely on their steady Protection.

But if any more
B——b shou'd do as before,
Or by Fraud or by Violence cheat ye,
In Numbers then go
And demolish your Foe,
Ye're Fools if again he defeat ye
But if any more &c. [Chorus.
